1888 PressRelease - EYES IN™ Magazine Editor-in-Chief Vivian Van Dijk is pleased to share innovations from a variety of fields, including the Arts, Culture, Fashion, Film and Business. Ad-free EYES IN™ Magazine Digital Edition 39 launches the New Year with an eye for innovation.

New York, NY - Vivian Van Dijk, Editor-in-Chief and President of EYES IN™ Magazine, (Periodic Publication), has released the 39th digital edition of EYES IN™ Magazine. Pleased to remain ad-free, Edition 39 showcases beautiful images with hallmark in-depth interviews to discover the minds behind the innovations. For the New Year, the innovative EYES IN™ Magazine Featured Creators™ highlight modern thought, innovate their industries, and set benchmarks which will change the world. These changes are witnessed through the artistic works of sculptor Marc Petit, whose startling work 'invites us to try to live each moment in its plenitude'; the positive lens of Suncious' Valentina Hernandez; the mixed martial arts (MMA) family drama 'Kingdom' starring Nick Jonas; the imaginative designs and technology behind the fashion of Issey Miyake; and the clever app, Cyclister, shared in an interview with co-founder Søren Low.

Enjoy snippets from a few interviews:

Artists: "I believe that today, I have gained in liberty. I am more guided by the shape than by the subject that I try to eliminate as far as possible. But I believe that this freedom is hard to acquire because it can be earned through the actions one takes daily, little by little without having decreed it." ~Marc Petit

Culture: "There are hundreds of good reasons to feel optimistic. Why not highlight them? If people see the glass half full, the insights for progress and wellness are infinite." ~Valentina Hernandez

Film: "...the goal of the show...is that I really wanted to show people that this is not just what you see used to promote fights. It's actually a real world with real people, and we want to tell the human side of that story and the people that are sacrificing so much in their lives. And again, you can watch this show and not give a damn about MMA and I think that you'll still very much enjoy it and get hooked." ~Byron Balasco

Fashion: "All I want is for people to experience a sense of joy when they wear my clothes...." ~Issey Miyake

Business: "Cyclister will improve the way we travel and explore cities and countries. It is not just renting a bike, it is giving yourself the freedom to see more." ~Søren Low
